Gulika in the 2nd: by the text, an indication of want of money and a leaning towards vices (intoxicants, aimless wandering and the like). In today's terms, discipline in saving and keeping away from intoxicants, gambling and waste matter most here.

⚠ In the Bhava Chalit chart 1 planet has moved to a different house. In judging the results of the houses, the Bhava Chalit house is the one that takes precedence.

⚡ Shadbala (planetary strength)

Planet	Sthana bala	Dik bala	Kala bala	Chesta bala	Naisargika	Drik bala	Total rupas	Required rupas	Ratio	Strength
Sun	160.83	3.34	110.72	0.00	60.00	3.71	5.64	5	1.13	Moderate
Moon	200.33	50.04	108.98	0.00	51.43	3.71	6.91	6	1.15	Strong
Mars	267.25	28.46	118.68	37.93	17.14	-31.56	7.30	5	1.46	Very strong
Mercury	211.97	26.90	183.85	50.91	25.71	9.85	8.49	7	1.21	Strong
Jupiter	142.30	7.78	151.47	43.26	34.29	-19.87	5.99	6.5	0.92	Weak
Venus	207.01	59.13	123.90	58.61	42.86	11.21	8.38	5.5	1.52	Very strong
Saturn	164.29	36.20	167.60	9.22	8.57	8.66	6.58	5	1.32	Strong

Shadbala is computed by the method of B. V. Raman's Graha and Bhava Balas — with saptavargaja, the nine parts of kala bala, cheshta and drik bala — and checked figure by figure against the example horoscope in that book. "Ratio" = total rupas ÷ the planet's required minimum; at 1 or above, the planet is strong by Raman's standard.

The planets in the houses

Planetary House Predictions

Planets in the houses

Sun — Libra (house 4)

The Sun has come into your fourth house. This house stands for the mother, the mind, happiness and vehicles. This placement will lend dignity to your family life, and you will own a fine house and carriage. But the Sun feels somewhat weak here, so peace of mind may be a little hard for you to find. A certain restlessness will work within you. Your relations with your mother will be good, though she may be somewhat stern or commanding. If you can govern your feelings and learn to respect the opinions of everyone at home, only then will you gain the full benefit of this placement. Remember: home is a place of peace, not a battlefield.

Moon — Virgo (house 3)

The Moon casts her cool rays in your third house. The third house is the field of valour, of brothers and sisters, and of communication. Under this placement you will be highly imaginative and creative. Through your writing or your speech you can touch people's hearts easily. Your relations with your brothers and sisters will be warm and close, and from them you will draw support. You will love short journeys, and those journeys will leave a deep mark on your mind. But this depth of feeling can at times make you timid or unable to decide. Remember, life is for going forward with courage. Put your imagination to work — do not fear it.

Mars — Capricorn (house 7)

Mars makes his fierce presence felt in your seventh house — the seat of marriage and partnership. In astrology this is called the 'Mangalik dosha', and it points to some challenges in married life. Your partner will be courageous, spirited and somewhat quick to anger. Your married life will be happy, but to keep the bond you will have to give up a great deal of your pride and obstinacy. The first few years of the relationship may pass through storms. But go on patiently and matters will slowly come right. Remember, marriage is only another word for accommodation. Do not turn it into a battlefield.

Mercury — Scorpio (Bhava Chalit 4 · whole-sign 5)

Mercury has come with his light of intellect into your fourth house. The fourth house signifies the mother, the mind, happiness and the atmosphere of home. Under this placement you will grow up in a household full of intelligence. Your mother will be highly intelligent and modern in outlook. There will be books and learning in your home. You too will love to arrange your home, and your arrangement will be neat and practical. A thousand thoughts will always be moving in your mind, which can at times leave you unsettled. For peace of mind you will want solitude, and then want to run among people again. This conflict can tire you. Remember: steadiness of mind is real happiness. Make a habit of spending some time each day in meditation or in silence.

Jupiter — Aquarius (house 8)

Jupiter has come to light the mysterious and profound chapters of life in your eighth house — the seat of sudden events and hidden knowledge. Under this placement your thirst for knowledge will not stay confined to the outer world; you will want to go deep into death, the mysteries beyond it, tantra, astrology and spiritual life. You may become skilled in all these hidden sciences. You may receive property by inheritance. But Jupiter is somewhat weak here, so there may be a fear of sudden financial loss or of hidden enemies. This placement will teach you that the world is far deeper and stranger than it shows. Never let this knowledge be turned to the wrong road. Hold fast to truth and justice, and then your knowledge will set you free.

Venus — Libra (house 4)

Venus has brought heavenly comfort into your fourth house — the world of the mother, the mind and the home. Venus is highly powerful in the fourth, for it is the place of his directional strength (the north). Under this placement your mother will be beautiful, loving and fond of the arts. Your childhood will pass amid comfort and art. Your mind will be calm, loving and full of happy memories. You will own a fine house, a costly vehicle and every kind of splendour. Your home will be arranged with an artist's skilled hand. This placement is so auspicious that it will keep you away from nearly every sorrow of life. You will be filled with worldly happiness all your days.

Saturn — Scorpio (house 5)

Saturn has built a dam of discipline and restraint across the world of your intellect, love and children in the fifth house — the seat of learning and of children. Under this placement your intellect will be deep, but slow. You may not master something easily, but once you learn it, it stays with you for life. In love you are not one for display at all; you love silently, and you know how to hold love. Children may come late, or you may have to labour hard for them. Your children will be responsible, but they will receive more discipline from you than affection. Remember, children are soft as flowers. Discipline them, but do not forget to water them with love — otherwise they may move away from you.

Rahu — Pisces (house 9)

Rahu has shown you unconventional roads in the world of your fortune, dharma and higher learning in the ninth house. Under this placement your religious belief will be entirely your own; you will not easily accept any established religion or teacher. You will travel abroad, and the culture there will influence you deeply. Your relationship with your father will not be good; you may see him as a tyrannical ruler whose rules you love to break. Your fortune will teach you to walk alone. If you truly seek a teacher, he will be severe and a traveller of unconventional roads. Take care — let your rebellion not be a blind one.

Ketu — Virgo (house 3)

Ketu in your third house has brought a deep silence into the world of your prowess, siblings and communication. By nature you will speak little, but when you speak, each of your words will go straight as an arrow and strike the mark. Your writing will be very powerful. Your relationship with siblings will be either extremely close or wholly severed; there is no middle state here. You may take short journeys, but they will be for a spiritual purpose or in search of solitude. Your courage will be dispassionate; you do not fear danger, you simply ignore it. In the eyes of society this very detachment is your greatest mystery.

🌀 Conjunctions and aspects

Results of planetary conjunctions

Sun + Venus (Separation: 7.4°)

Effect of the conjunction: the Sun with Venus — two planets at odds, so pleasure and authority will pull against each other. Keep a balance between indulgence and responsibility.

Moon + Ketu (Separation: 1.6°)

Effect of the conjunction: the Moon with Ketu — feeling deepens, but detachment from worldly life comes too. An excellent time for self-realisation.

Results of planetary aspects

Moon → Rahu (7th aspect)

Effect of the aspect: the Moon aspects your Rahu — restlessness and illusion touch the mind; seek the help of an honest adviser.

Jupiter → Sun (9th aspect)

Effect of the aspect: Jupiter casts a benefic aspect on your Sun — most auspicious. Knowledge, a sense of dharma and good fortune increase.

Jupiter → Mercury (9th aspect)

Effect of the aspect: Jupiter casts a benefic aspect on your Mercury — intellect joined to knowledge will make you wise.

Jupiter → Venus (9th aspect)

Effect of the aspect: Jupiter casts a benefic aspect on your Venus — pleasure will not cross its bounds; the light of knowledge shows the way.

Saturn → Mars (3rd aspect)

Effect of the aspect: Saturn aspects your Mars — pace slows and obstacles come. But that very slowness will mature you.

Rahu → Moon (7th aspect)

Effect of the aspect: Rahu aspects your Moon — a web of illusion and restlessness on the mind; hold the balance between dream and reality.

Rahu → Saturn (9th aspect)

Effect of the aspect: Rahu aspects your Saturn — karmic obstruction doubled; work hard — any attempt to dodge it will rebound.

Ketu → Mars (5th aspect)

Effect of the aspect: Ketu aspects your Mars — keen energy with indifference to the fruit; the courage of karma yoga.

Doshas — Mangalik and Kalasarpa

Dosha Vichar Analysis

⚠ Manglik & Kalasarpa dosha

There is no need for undue alarm over Manglik dosha or Kalasarpa yoga. With the right remedy and a careful reading these are readily resolved.

⚠ Manglik dosha is present

In the Lagna chart Mars is in your Seventh (7th) house — this is a Manglik house.

Mars in the 7th — marital discord, risk of separation.

In the Moon chart Mars is in the Fifth (5th) house — this is not a Māṅgalika house.

Effect: There may be delay in marriage, discord in married life and tension in the relationship. However, when Manglik dosha is present, marriage to another Manglik partner cancels the dosha on both sides.

Remedy:

- Worship Hanuman and recite the Sundarakanda every Tuesday
- Fast on Tuesdays or donate red masoor dal
- The Kumbha-vivaha or Vishnu-vivaha rite before marriage
- Wear a 7-faced Rudraksha (to pacify Mars)
- Wear a Red Coral — on expert advice

✓ No Kālasarpa yoga

In your zodiac circle there is no Kālasarpa yoga — all the planets move freely outside the Rāhu-Ketu axis. You are entirely free of this doṣa.

🌐 Saturn's Sade Sati

When Saturn transits the 12th sign from the natal Moon (the rising phase), the Moon's own sign (the peak) and the 2nd from it (the setting phase), Sāḍhesātī — the seven and a half years — is active. An approximate reckoning for 100 years from birth is given below.

D-2 Hora — wealth analysis

D-2 Hora chart (wealth and resources)

Every sign is divided into two horas of 15° each. In an odd sign the first hora belongs to the Sun (Leo) and the second to the Moon (Cancer); in an even sign the order is reversed.

Sun — the Sun's hora (Leo)

Strong in its own sign. The Sun in the hora of Leo: in its own hora the Sun is very strong. Wealth will increase through leadership and authority.

Financial gain comes from government sources or from high office. Your self-confidence is the very instrument by which you gather wealth. Its natural qualities appear in full.

Moon — the Sun's hora (Leo)

A helpful placement in a friend's sign. The Moon in the hora of Leo: with the Moon in the Sun's hora, men — or your father — play an important part in your gathering of wealth. Financial gain comes through government or administrative channels. Govern your feelings and move by plan, and the earnings will be considerable. Progress will come through cooperation.

Mars — the Sun's hora (Leo)

A helpful placement in a friend's sign. Mars in the hora of Leo: wealth increases through bold enterprise and competitive work. Investment in technology or the building trade is favourable. Take a risk with confidence and a large gain will follow. Progress will come through cooperation.

Mercury — the Moon's hora (Cancer)

Some obstruction, being in an enemy's sign. Mercury in the hora of Cancer: wealth is earned through trade, writing or work with information. The family business prospers by force of intelligence. Savings grow in banking or in the keeping of accounts. A way through is possible with skill.

Jupiter — the Moon's hora (Cancer)

Exalted, and so highly favourable. Jupiter in the hora of Cancer: being exalted here it gives an exceptionally favourable result for wealth. Considerable wealth will come through education, religion or the law. You will build your financial security around the values of your family. The result appears in full strength.

Venus — the Moon's hora (Cancer)

Some obstruction, being in an enemy's sign. Venus in the hora of Cancer: wealth increases in luxury goods, the arts or the beauty trade. Financial help comes through women or through the family. A profitable career lies in fashion or cultural work. A way through is possible with skill.

Saturn — the Moon's hora (Cancer)

Some obstruction, being in an enemy's sign. Saturn in the hora of Cancer: wealth will be gathered slowly but lastingly. A firm financial base comes from agriculture, old property or a traditional business. It is patient investment that becomes long-term wealth. A way through is possible with skill.

Rahu — the Sun's hora (Leo)

Some obstruction, being in an enemy's sign. Rahu in the hora of Leo: unexpected financial advantage through government or corporate channels. Large gain in new technology or an unconventional business. Wealth will increase through self-promotion. A way through is possible with skill.

Ketu — the Sun's hora (Leo)

Some obstruction, being in an enemy's sign. Ketu in the hora of Leo: wealth is earned through occult knowledge or spiritual service. Earning by the ordinary road is difficult, but success comes by the unconventional one. Even through renunciation the deepest peace is attained. A way through is possible with skill.

D-7 Saptamsha — children and creativity

D-7 Saptamsha chart (children and creativity) – Ascendant: Cancer

Sun — in the 7th house, in Capricorn

Some obstruction, being in an enemy's sign. The child will be handsome and attractive, and after marriage your happiness in children will increase. The child will help you as a business partner would. A way through is possible with skill.

Moon — in the 2nd house, in Leo

A helpful placement in a friend's sign. The child will succeed in a family business or in the food trade, and will keep very close ties with the family. Progress will come through cooperation.

Mars — in the 5th house, in Scorpio

Strong in its own sign. The child will be full of drive, and will succeed as an athlete or in competitive examinations. Its natural qualities appear in full.

Mercury — in the 12th house, in Gemini

Strong in its own sign. The child will go abroad and work in information technology or education. Its natural qualities appear in full.

Jupiter — in the 12th house, in Gemini

☾ Transit results (from the Moon sign)

🔮 Chandra Shuddhi (Auspicious): The Moon is in the 11th house from your birth sign — an auspicious Moon. Even in an inauspicious transit some good will be felt.

Sun — Virgo → Birth sign (first house) Inauspicious Ashtakavarga 5/8 ● Moderate

Loss of place or position

The Sun is now in your birth sign, which marks the blazing Sun's direct arrival at the very centre of your being. For this one month you may have to move away from a place you had long thought a safe shelter — a home or a place of work. What is old breaks only to make room for something new. Your confidence will grow many times over, but pride may rise with it: you will think yourself the most right, and find it hard to accept another's view. Remember the lesson of the Sun itself — it gives light to the world yet never stares into the eye; it sheds its light while remaining humble.

Physically, headache, fever or eye trouble may appear; drink enough water and take rest, and see a doctor if anything persists. This transit brings the wind of change, and if you can welcome the change it becomes the beginning of something great. The effect will be felt most keenly as the Sun enters the sign.

Moon — Cancer → Eleventh house Auspicious Ashtakavarga 3/8 ✧ Weak

Growth of wealth and gain of friends

The Moon is now in your eleventh house, and in this house of gain and friendship its transit opens the door of your income. For these two and a quarter days wealth will grow and unexpected profit will come, time spent with friends will be joyful, and a social gathering will be a pleasure. Only put aside over-expectation and greed. The effect will be felt most keenly as the Moon leaves the sign.

Mars — Cancer → Eleventh house Auspicious Ashtakavarga 6/8 ★ Strong

Gain of land and growth of property

Mars is now in your eleventh house, and its transit through this house of gain, income and friendship opens a new chapter in your financial and social life. For these three fortnights you may acquire land or property, a new source of income will arise, and friendships will grow firmer. But holding land and property calls for prudence; do not let the lure of profit draw you into a risky investment. The effect will be felt most keenly as Mars enters the sign.

Mercury — Libra → Second house Auspicious Ashtakavarga 5/8 ● Moderate

Gain of wealth and success in trade

Mercury is now in your second house, and its transit through this house of wealth and of speech will give new movement to your financial life. For these eighteen days your speech will carry such force that you will win success in trade through words alone. Intellectual conversation with the family will be a pleasure, and writing or work with accounts will bring gain. Mercury in this house will grant you success — on one condition only: that you keep to the honest road. The effect will be felt evenly throughout the transit.

Jupiter — Cancer → Eleventh house Auspicious Ashtakavarga 6/8 ★ Strong

Gain of position and of wealth

♦ Mahadasha and transit together: an auspicious transit of the same planet during the mahadasha of Jupiter — the fruit is multiplied many times over. Dhana-labha yoga: Jupiter transiting the eleventh with a favourable mahadasha — a special yoga for financial gain.

Jupiter is now in your eleventh house — and in this house of gain, of income, of friendship, of your wider circle and of dreams fulfilled, the auspicious transit of the guru of the gods will begin a new dawn in your financial and social life. The panjika reads a special yoga for gain of position and of wealth here: for this one year you will gain a new field of work, a new home or a new standing in society, and the flow of money will be steady and rising. Particular respect and recognition will come through teaching, through religious work or through service to the public. Unlooked-for help and gifts will come from friends and well-wishers. Physically, be careful of trouble in the ankles and the veins. Give books and clothing to students each Thursday — that giving will increase the fruit of this transit remarkably. Remember — in the eleventh house the guru gives wealth for the service of others; the one who spends it on good works keeps his grace in the year that follows too. The effect will be felt most distinctly at the midpoint of the transit.

Venus — Libra → Second house Auspicious Ashtakavarga 4/8 • Moderate

Financial gain and family happiness

⚠ Vedha: because Saturn stands in the 7th house, the fruit of this transit is being obstructed. (Parashara Hora Shastra, chapter 30)

Venus is now in your second house, and its transit through this house of wealth and of speech will bring a shower of good fortune on your financial life. For these twenty-eight days your speech will be so sweet and so winning that you will charm people with ease. You will gain financially, and an air of happiness, peace and affection will fill the household. Venus will give you both wealth and love — only keep no duplicity in your dealings. The effect will be felt most distinctly at the midpoint of the transit.

Saturn — Pisces → Seventh house Inauspicious Ashtakavarga 3/8 ✦ Weak

Misfortune and marital distress

Saturn is now transiting your seventh house — the house of the life partner, of marriage, of business partnership and of your standing among others. For two and a half years the planet of justice will test the foundations of every relationship you have. The panjika reads a yoga for misfortune here: distance from your partner, misunderstanding and disagreement can reach their sharpest point, and even the shadow of separation may appear. In business partnership you may meet a breach of trust. Physically, trouble may show in the kidneys, the bladder and the reproductive organs — drink plenty of water and keep up regular check-ups. Be patient in your relationships. Saturn marks the weak places in a bond in order to repair them, not to break them. Hold to respect and faithfulness towards your partner, and avoid new business agreements. Each Saturday, read the Shani Stotra together as a couple, offer sesame, and perform Hanuman puja. Remember this: a relationship that breaks under Saturn in the seventh was already weak from the start — these two and a half years are your chance to rebuild it anew. The effect will be felt most keenly as Saturn leaves the sign.

Rahu — Aquarius → Sixth house Auspicious

Auspicious results and defeat of enemies

△ Vedha: because Ketu stands in the 12th house, the fruit of this transit is being obstructed. (Parashara Hora Shastra, chapter 30)

◆ Antardasha and transit together: a transit of the same planet during the antardasha of Rahu — the fruit will be felt with particular force now.

Rahu is now in your sixth house — and unlike every other placement, the shadow planet's transit through this house of enemies, illness and debt gives distinctly auspicious results. The panjika reads a special yoga of auspicious results here: for this one and a half years your enemies will be defeated — though the way Rahu gives victory is unconventional and strange: your enemies will fall into their own traps. You may find sudden relief from a long-standing and obscure illness. An unexpected way of clearing debt will open. Using technology or a foreign connection, you will be able to stay ahead in competition. Physically, you may find relief from an old skin complaint — alternative or unconventional treatment may be particularly effective in this season. Only do not grow drunk on winning. Perform Durga puja and offer a coconut. Remember — in the sixth house Rahu conquers enemies with unseen power; use that power for honest work, never for a crooked road. The effect will be felt evenly throughout the transit.

Ketu — Leo → Twelfth house Inauspicious

Ketu in the twelfth — a yoga for liberation, rising expense, life in a foreign land

When Ketu transits the twelfth house, the panjika says a yoga for liberation forms — though on the worldly side there is risk of rising expense and of life away from home. As this is the time of the completion of past karma, there is the opportunity to be freed from an old bondage. Solitude, aloneness and a leaning towards detachment grow strong. There is want of comfort in the bedchamber and risk of separation in married life. There is the possibility of trouble in the legs, or of a stay in hospital. Work may be hindered by hidden enemies or unseen obstruction. If you give your mind to spiritual practice, this season is a great opportunity for self-knowledge. Remedy: give sesame and a blanket in particular. Perform Ganesha puja and repeat the Mahamrityunjaya mantra. With the daily practice of meditation and yoga it is possible to turn Ketu's leaning towards liberation into genuine self-realisation.

KP system in brief: Each planet's sub-lord decides which house's result that planet will give. An event takes place when: (1) the cusp sub-lord is a significator of the house concerned, and (2) the planets of the running Mahadasha and Antardasha are significators of that same house. A star (★) marks the Mahadasha lord, a dot (·) the Antardasha lord.

☆ General traits

Key details:

Lagna: Cancer | Gana: Rakshasa

Birth nakshatra: Chitra — 1st pada

Moon sign: Virgo | Sun sign: Libra

Tithi: Krishna Chaturdashi | Karana: Vishti

★ Ascendant reading (Cancer):

Your ascendant is Cancer. The foundation of your body and outward self was laid in the soft light of the Moon, lord of the mind. The Moon has given you deep feeling, affection, imagination and a sensitive heart.

Under this ascendant the build is usually medium, soft, with a round face. Your eyes are bright and full of feeling. In health you may suffer from stomach trouble, gastric complaints, poor digestion or waterborne illness. Your changes of mood tell on your body, so caring for your mind is especially important.

To the outside world you appear affectionate, attentive and a little shy. You love your family and your home deeply, and you are ready to give up a great deal for those close to you. Your memory is keen, and you cannot easily let go of the past. This depth of feeling is your greatest strength, but ungoverned it leaves you easily wounded and inclined to withdraw. Learn to grow a slightly harder shell.

★ Nakshatra reading (Chitra):

Your Moon is in Chitra nakshatra in Virgo sign. The lord of Chitra is Mars and the lord of the sign is Mercury. You belong to the Rakshasa gana.

Under the artistic influence of Chitra nakshatra, your personality has blossomed as beautifully as the stroke of an artist's brush. The deity of Chitra nakshatra is Tvashta or Vishwakarma—the celestial architect and craftsman of the gods. Under this nakshatra's influence, you possess extraordinary creativity, building ability, and aesthetic sense. You love to arrange things beautifully. Your eyes are extremely sensitive to beauty.

Alongside this creativity, the auspicious influence of Mercury, lord of your sign, makes you extremely intelligent, analytical, and skilled in communication. You do not take anything lightly—you scrutinize and analyze everything. Moreover, the auspicious influence of Mars, lord of your nakshatra, makes you courageous, diligent, and quick in decision-making. You not only plan beautiful things but also have the courage to implement them.

The symbol of this sign is the virgin maiden. Just as the virgin maiden symbolizes purity, service, and dedication, you too are naturally service-minded and devoted. Under the auspicious influence of this symbol, you love cleanliness and order. The element of this sign is earth—the symbol of stability, patience, and practicality. Under its auspicious influence, you are realistic and grounded. And because this sign is of a dual nature, you can adapt yourself according to circumstances.

So many auspicious influences together have truly made you an extraordinary person.

But when the creativity of Chitra combines with the critical nature of Virgo, some restlessness arises—controlling it can make your creation truly Vishwakarma-like.

Under the malefic influence of Vishwakarma, deity of your nakshatra, sometimes excessive pride in your own creation appears—you think, "No one can make better than me." Under this influence, the tendency to criticize others' creations increases. When Mercury, lord of the sign, exerts a malefic influence, excessive thinking and anxiety arise—thinking about the same thing over and over leads to mental fatigue. When Mars, lord of the nakshatra, exerts a harsh influence, impatience appears—you want to see results before the work is finished.

The immature side of the virgin maiden symbol is excessive fastidiousness. Under the malefic influence of this symbol, you find small defects even in your own creation and become dissatisfied. When the earth-element sign loses control, this stability turns into inertia—there is a tendency to fear change. When the dual-nature sign goes out of control, inconsistency of character appears. And under the malefic influence of the Rakshasa gana, there is a tendency to put your own interests above everyone else's.

These negative traits have arisen under the influence of nakshatra and sign—but they are not permanent. If you wish, you can become aware of them and bring about change.

The great Italian artist and philosopher Leonardo da Vinci said:

"Simplicity is the ultimate sophistication."

Give simplicity to your creativity. There is no need to complicate everything. Restrain your critical nature—give yourself a little slack and respect others' creations too. You can do it. With Mars's courage and Mercury's intelligence within you, you can truly create like Vishwakarma.

Birth-yoga reading (Vishkumbha):

You were born under Vishkumbha yoga. This is the first of the twenty-seven yogas. The deity of this yoga is Vishnu himself. Under the influence of Vishkumbha yoga a rare union of steadiness and strength has come together in you. You are patient and calm, yet at need you can become exceedingly strong and resolute. There is something regal in your personality that draws people towards you. You are deeply responsible towards your family and towards society. In your presence people feel a sense of safety. You do not trust anyone easily, but once you have taken someone as your own you never leave them.

Under this yoga you are usually wealthy and honoured in society. You hold a deep respect for dharma and for moral principle. You cannot involve yourself in any wrongdoing; rather you have the courage to stand against it.

Yet one particular side of Vishkumbha yoga is that under its influence you may at times feel a closeness or a suppressed tension within your own mind. You know a great deal, but you do not readily wish to express it. From this a pressure builds upon your mind. When you find in life that you are restless within while appearing calm from outside, know that the influence of this yoga is at work.

At such times learn to express yourself a little. Open your mind to someone you trust. You will find the mind grows lighter.

Remember that Vishnu is not only the preserver — he takes the whole burden of the world upon himself. You too should lighten the burden of your own mind a little. Under this yoga your life is generally one of happiness and prosperity, if you can govern the pressure within you.

Born in this solar nakshatra/month:

You stepped into this world in the middle of Kartik, when the Sun, positioned in Swati nakshatra within Libra, was offering the taste of an open breeze. This is a weak placement for the Sun, where its heat nearly fades. This situation infused your inner being with an independent mindset, flexibility, and business acumen. The man within you cannot stay bound; he always wants to know something new, to go somewhere new, and he can easily adapt to any environment. Like the wind-god of Swati nakshatra, you love to roam free. Under the influence of Libra, this freedom does not want to express itself alone, but through relationships. The source of your confidence is this adaptability and business sense. You know you can adjust to any situation and find the path to profit. But this excessive freedom must not make you irresponsible or restless. Your leadership will be dynamic and adaptable, where you can make the right decisions quickly in changing situations.

Tithi reading (Krishna Chaturdashi):

You were born on the Krishna Chaturdashi tithi. The deity of this tithi is Shiva. Just as Shiva is the symbol of renunciation, meditation, and spirituality, your mind also loves to immerse itself in deep spiritual thoughts. But due to the influence of the Krishna Paksha, you practice your spirituality secretly—no one can tell how profound you are just by looking at you. You meditate in solitude, you think alone. Due to the influence of the Krishna Paksha, you are naturally clever, astute, and intelligent.

However, the Moon is very faint now, right before the new moon. Thus, this depth and solitude sometimes turn into depression. You become so engrossed in yourself that the outside world seems meaningless. In life, when you see your mind getting heavier, or you don't find joy in anything, or you want to give up everything, stop. Spend time with a lively and positive person. Their enthusiasm will lighten your mind. Remember, the moon rises again after the new moon.

As a remedy, you can wear a 14 Mukhi Rudraksha. It is the symbol of Shiva. This Rudraksha will increase your mental peace and spirituality and remove depression. Wash it with Ganga water on a Monday morning and wear it around your neck on a white or black string. Chant the mantra 'Om Namah Shivaya'.

Karana reading (Vishti):

You were born in the Vishti karana. It is the seventh of the eleven karanas, and it is a sthira or fixed karana. The deity of this karana is Yama.

Under the influence of Vishti karana your way of working is hard — the kind that finishes even under pressure. When you undertake a task, obstruction will surely come, as though it were your destiny. Nothing will come to you easily; for everything you will have to labour hard. But this very labour tempers you from within and makes you experienced and strong. You may find success in hard or night work, in work of service, or in work of cleanliness.

Under Yama's influence you see the hard truths of life from very close. You understand the meaning of death and of transformation.

Yet one particular side of the Vishti karana is that under its influence you sometimes stay sunk in despair or in hardship. You begin to think, "only suffering is written in my fate." This attitude weakens you further. When you see in life that you are not receiving the fruit of your labour, or that no one sees your hardship, do not give up. Remember that Yama is the deity of justice; he never withholds what is anyone's due. The worth of your hardship will certainly come to you one day. Keep patience.

A retrograde planet points to unfinished karma from a past life. In the house of such a planet, life brings the same test again and again — yet with deep sadhana this very planet becomes the greatest strength.

Jupiter retrograde

Aquarius — 8th house

Knowledge, dharma, children, guru

With Jupiter retrograde, knowledge and a sense of dharma unfold along an inner path. There is a tendency to seek one's own spiritual way rather than follow received religious practice. The relationship with a guru or teacher may be complex. Over the long term the depth of knowledge becomes extraordinary.

8th house — special result:

Retrograde Jupiter in the 8th house — long life, but caution is needed in health. A deep interest in the world beyond and in mysterious knowledge. Wealth may come by inheritance. In a religious view there is no fear of death.

Remedy: Worship Vishnu on Thursdays. Donate yellow cloth and bananas. Serve your elders.

Venus retrograde

Libra — 4th house

Love, beauty, marriage, art

With Venus retrograde, love and the sense of beauty do not express themselves along ordinary lines. Deep feeling stays within. The shadow of something unfinished in the past may fall across relationships. It gives extraordinary creativity in the arts.

4th house — special result:

Retrograde Venus in the 4th house — a singular taste in the decoration of the home. Warmth in relations with the mother, but differences underneath. A wish to make the house beautiful and comfortable. A beautiful setting is needed for peace of mind.

Remedy: Worship Lakshmi on Fridays. Donate white cloth and sugar. Keep honesty in relationships.

🕉️ Jaimini Chara Karakas

Atmakaraka: Moon (Virgo · 24.51°)

The Moon as Atmakaraka — the soul's lesson in this birth is to give itself away in a mother's compassion.

The soul finds fulfilment in human connection, emotional honesty and inner insight.

Conquering the Moon's restlessness and holding the mind steady is this soul's sadhana.

Contentment comes through peace of mind and domestic happiness — and final freedom through service to family and society.

Karaka	Planet	Sign	Degree	Significations
Atmakaraka (AK)	Moon	Virgo	24.51°	The soul · the central purpose of life · the core of personality
Amatyakaraka (AmK)	Venus	Libra	21.79°	Profession · livelihood · the minister-like helper
Bhratrikaraka (BK)	Mars	Capricorn	19.75°	Siblings · courage · initiative · valour
Matrikaraka (MK)	Jupiter	Aquarius	19.40°	Mother · domestic comfort · peace of mind · immovable property
Putrakaraka (PK)	Saturn	Scorpio	14.64°	Children · merit from past lives · intellect · investment
Gnatikaraka (GK)	Sun	Libra	14.37°	Relatives · enemies · obstacles
Darakaraka (DK)	Mercury	Scorpio	5.34°	Life partner · marriage · business partner

Jaimini Rashi Drishti (Rashi Drishti)

Movable signs (Aries · Cancer · Libra · Capricorn) — aspect the fixed signs (except the adjacent one).

Fixed signs (Taurus · Leo · Scorpio · Aquarius) — aspect the movable signs (except the adjacent one).

Dual signs (Gemini · Virgo · Sagittarius · Pisces) — aspect one another (except the adjacent one).

→ Unlike Parashari aspects, Jaimini aspects are sign-based — it is the sign that matters, not the planet's position.

Brief guidance on the other kārakas

Amatyakaraka (Venus): The direction of your profession and working life is judged from the sign and house of this planet.

Darakaraka (Mercury): This planet gives the indications about the partner's nature and about marriage. Whatever sign the Dārākāraka occupies, the qualities of that sign will be found in the partner.

🔥 Naming — syllables of the birth nakshatra

Pe

Rule of naming: According to jyotiṣa śāstra a name beginning with "Pe" is auspicious and sanctioned by the śāstra — the syllable of a name is fixed by the birth nakshatra and its pāda. If the native's name Rudra is already given, there is nothing to worry about — this syllable is only a traditional guideline; the same auspicious result is obtained by using it in a pet name, a middle name or a family name. All the pāda syllables of this nakshatra are given below.

All pāda syllables (Chitra): First pada: Pe Second pada: Po Third pada: Ra Fourth pada: Ree

Analysis of your life and what is foretold

Comprehensive Life Analysis

Life analysis

Jyotish analysis of 5 areas of life

Age: 39 years — Grihastha ashrama

● Career

★ Outstanding

Your working life will be highly successful and honoured. Mars, lord of the tenth house, stands in great strength — he is placed in the 7th house, in Capricorn. Mars is exalted — a mark of Rajayoga. In your field of work you will rise beyond rivalry.

Mixed — both employment and business are possible, or freelancing — these suit you best. You will gain high office, respect and recognition at work. Your capacity to lead will be so plain that colleagues will follow you and those above you will place their trust in you.

Yet let success bring no pride. Stay humble as the Sun and give light. Let others be lit by your success too — that is the greatest karmayoga of your life.

Suitable professions: Mixed — both employment and business are possible, or freelancing

♥ Married life

✓ Happy

Married life will generally be happy. There will be some disagreement, but it will ripen the bond rather than break it. Saturn as lord of the seventh stands in the 5th house.

Venus in the 4th house — the significator of love is strong enough. The Moon in the 3rd house — the bond of feeling is firm.

Mangalika dosha is present — keep your temper in hand.

Remember — a good relationship is like a crop: it must be tended every single day.

Manglik dosha: present

★ Children

★ Auspicious

The promise of happiness through children is very kind. Mars, lord of the fifth house, stands well in the 7th house, and Jupiter in the 8th house, in Aquarius.

Your children will be the companions of your old age. The running dasha favours happiness through children.

Remember — give your children discipline and values; they are your true inheritance.

▲ Finances

~ Conflicted

There will be some hardship and struggle in your financial life. Because the lord of the second or the eleventh house stands weakly, obstacles may come in gathering wealth.

Chief source of income: Professional work and investment — move forward with caution. Keep away from speculation and from excessive debt.

Remember — a skill once acquired can be taken from you by no one.

Sources of income: Professional work and investment

♥ Health

! Needs care

Your health calls for particular care. Moon, lord of the ascendant, stands weakly — in the 3rd house.

Take a physician's advice regularly and eat nourishing food. Remember — the body is the temple of the soul, and caring for it is the first duty.

This analysis follows the traditional method of Jyotish — it is guidance, not a final verdict

🕒 Prahara analysis

A classical reading from the weekday and prahara of birth. The joint influence of their lords shapes temperament, health, profession and marriage.

Friday

Friday, night / seventh prahara. Vāreśa: Venus. Prahareśa: Saturn. Element: water and air mixed. Quality: tāmasika.

Born on a Friday night, the native is formed by the dense influence of Venus and Saturn. The joints and the reproductive system need care. The nature is single-minded and drawn to hidden subjects. Success is indicated in the secret arts, in design or in night work. Relationships are close; the native takes time to trust a partner completely. There is a yoga for unexpected financial gain. Japa of the Venus and Saturn mantras is enjoined.

Results of the periods, and where the planets are weak

Dasha Phala · Current Period Analysis

📖 Dasha results & remedies

Mahādaśā results: Jupiter (16 years)

16.0 years total, 15.5 years elapsed

In your chart Jupiter stands in the eighth house, and the Mahadasha of Jupiter is now running. The eighth house is the seat of mystery, death and joint property — even the teacher among planets grows weak on arriving here.

In this Mahadasha you may face loss of wealth — dispute over inheritance or family property may grow. Relations with your father-in-law or your spouse's family may worsen. Hidden enemies will become active, and a sudden heavy expense or loss may occur.

Yet the eighth house is also the emblem of transformation — this loss will teach you how to build yourself anew. Take no great risk, and stay away from investment. Keep papers concerning inheritance in order. You will find peace of mind in charity, contemplation and religious work. Fast on Thursday and give chickpeas in charity — Jupiter will be your shield.

The challenge of an inimical sign:

Jupiter stands in an inimical sign (Aquarius) — here the planet is, as it were, a prisoner in the fortress of the opposition. In this Mahadasha, therefore, competition and obstruction will come more than usual — enemies will grow active and strew thorns on the road. Yet this very challenge of the inimical sign will awaken your hidden strength — just as coal becomes a diamond only under pressure. Stay alert, be skilful — it is in the enemy's own fortress that you will raise your flag of victory.

Age note (middle age — 31-50, the householder stage): according to the Laghu Parashari and the Phaladeepika, Jupiter is significator of dharma, wealth and desire — in the householder stage his Mahadasha is the time of the most balanced attainment of the four aims of life. Children, professional honour, justice and the reward of righteousness arrive together. In this stage you yourself will be a teacher to others — fulfil your duty to society as a teacher, an adviser or a judge.

◆ Jupiter Mahadasha — the whole journey (16 years)

Jupiter is the teacher of the gods — the significator of religion, knowledge, children, prosperity and spiritual growth. Over 16 years this Mahadasha brings auspicious connections, expansion and the light of knowledge into life.

◆ First stage (~7 years) — Harmony of knowledge and work; building the foundation Antardasha: Jupiter / Saturn / Mercury

In Jupiter's own Antardasha there is auspicious expansion in religion, higher education, the grace of a teacher and social dignity. In the Antardasha of Saturn, with the meeting of Jupiter and Saturn, hard labour on long-term plans bears fruit. In the Antardasha of Mercury new opportunities open through business shrewdness and communication.

◆ Middle stage (~4.5 years) — Spiritual depth and the fullness of life Antardasha: Ketu / Venus / Sun

In the Antardasha of Ketu, Jupiter's pursuit of knowledge deepens, and interest is born in the thought of liberation and in pilgrimage. In the Antardasha of Venus auspicious results come in marriage, property and beauty. In the Antardasha of the Sun there is progress in fatherly relationships and in authority.

◆ Final stage (~4.5 years) — Fullness and the start of a new cycle Antardasha: Moon / Mars / Rahu

In the Antardasha of the Moon fullness comes in peace of mind, motherly affection and domestic happiness. In the Antardasha of Mars a new path of work opens through courage and enterprise. In the Antardasha of Rahu, with the meeting of Jupiter's knowledge and Rahu's ambition, foreign opportunity and success along unconventional paths arrive — karmic preparation for Saturn's Mahadasha is completed.

AntardashaResult: Jupiter / Rahu

🕒 Duration of this sub-period: 2 yr 4 mo

The last sub-period of the major period of Jupiter belongs to Rahu. This is a time of curious union — the light of knowledge blended with the darkness of illusion. You stand now at the door of a new chapter. Under Rahu your ambition will run strong, but Jupiter's knowledge will show you the right road.

At this time you may find success in foreign travel, technology or unconventional work. But do not get caught in Rahu's web of illusion — examine any tempting offer carefully. This time is like a bridge for you, carrying you from Jupiter's world of knowledge into Saturn's world of labour. Keep yourself ready for the next chapter.

Particular points from your own chart:

- Jupiter (lord of the major period) in the 8th house, in Aquarius — a trika house — obstacles are possible in the results of this period
- Rahu (lord of the sub-period) in the 9th house, in Pisces — a trikona (trinal) house, a favourable placement

PratyantardashaResult: Sun

Currently running · Jupiter/Rahu/Sun dasha

In Rahu's deceptive world, the Sun's radiance spreads an intense light, but Rahu wants to devour it. Jupiter and the Sun are friends, so your soul's light will be the ultimate savior. You will crave fame and success in the external world, but the methods will be questionable. Restrain the greed for power. Remember, the plan of an eclipse cannot defeat nature—your honesty will be that infallible weapon.

Particular points on the lord of the sub-sub-period:

- the Sun (lord of the sub-sub-period) in the 4th house, in Libra [debilitated] — a kendra (angular) house, a favourable placement

◆ Transit and dasha together

Based on today's date

- ◆ Auspicious transit of the Guru: Jupiter is in the 1st house from the ascendant (Cancer) — in a trikona or ascendant transit the full blessing of Devaguru is available.
- ◆ Rāhu-Ketu transit: Rāhu is now in Aquarius, Ketu in Leo. In the daśā of a shadow planet its own transit position carries particular weight.

Planetary remedies — the two weakest planets (Tri-Shakti)

Jupiter (Shadbala: 5.99 rupas)

Worship: Keep the Thursday fast. Perform Vishnu puja. Chant 'Om Brim Brihaspataye Namah'.

Donation: Donate yellow cloth, chana dal, books and scriptures.

Service: The greatest remedy for Jupiter is to honour and serve teachers, priests and people of learning. We are forgetting the worth of the guru — the teacher who laid the foundation of our life goes unremembered. Find a teacher from your own life, touch their feet, take their blessing. If a priest or a person of religion is living in want, help them. Hold a small gathering in a teacher's honour — that alone will please Jupiter. To show reverence for knowledge and dharma is Jupiter's greatest remedy.

Lal Kitab: Wear yellow on Thursday mornings. Worship the banana tree. Bathe in water mixed with turmeric.

Sun (Shadbala: 5.64 rupas)

Worship: Perform twelve Surya Namaskars daily. On Sunday offer red sandalwood and hibiscus on a Shiva linga. Chant 'Om Namo Bhagavate Rudraya'.

Donation: Donate red cloth, wheat, jaggery and copper.

Service: The greatest remedy for the Sun is service to a father burdened by a daughter's future. In our society there are fathers who have fallen into debt marrying a daughter, or who have lost their sleep worrying for her. If you can find such a family — where a father is struggling to gather the money for his daughter's marriage — stand beside that father. Help with the cost of a poor girl's wedding if you are able, or take on the responsibility for a girl's education. If you can bring a smile to a father's face, the Sun himself will be pleased: your confidence will return and your capacity to lead will wake.

Lal Kitab: Each morning offer water to the Sun from a copper vessel. Bathe with jaggery and red sandalwood mixed into the water. Release a copper coin into a river.

Gemstone guidance (Lagna lord + 5th lord)

Lagna-lord gemstone (first) — Pearl (Mukta)

Planet: Moon (Lagna lord)

Metal: Silver | Finger: Index or ring finger

Day to wear it: Monday | Weight: 10–12 ratti

Mantra: Om Somāya Namaḥ

Benefits: Peace of mind, happiness from the mother, memory

Reason: Moon is your Lagna lord — ruler of the body, health and personality. According to the Parashara Hora Shastra the Lagna lord's gemstone takes the highest priority. A native of any ascendant may wear it without fear.

5th-lord gemstone (second) — Red Coral (Praval)

Planet: Mars (5th lord)

Metal: Copper | Finger: Ring finger

Day to wear it: Tuesday | Weight: 10–12 ratti

Mantra: Om Arṁ Aṅgārakāya Namaḥ

Benefits: Courage, strength, gain of land, drive

Reason: Mars is your 5th lord — the finest trikona position. According to the Parashara Hora Shastra the 5th lord's gemstone increases children, learning, intellect and meritorious deeds. It may be worn without fear in any circumstance.

ॐ How to wear the gemstone: on the prescribed weekday, bathe in the morning, chant the mantra 108 times, and then put it on.

🚫 Forbidden gemstone combinations (never wear these together)

- Ruby + Blue Sapphire — Sun and Saturn are utter enemies
- Ruby + Diamond — Sun and Venus are enemies
- Pearl + Hessonite — Moon and Rahu are perpetually opposed
- Yellow Sapphire + Emerald — Jupiter and Mercury are opposed
- Red Coral + Blue Sapphire — Mars and Saturn are enemies

♈ Planetary weakness

Worship and remedies for the peace of the planets

♦ Jupiter (slight weakness)

Reason: Jupiter stands in an inauspicious house (the 8th); Jupiter is weak in Shadbala (5.99 rupas)

Lal Kitab remedy:

Wear yellow on Thursday mornings. Worship the banana tree. Bathe in water mixed with turmeric.

Worship:

Keep the Thursday fast. Perform Vishnu puja. Chant 'Om Brim Brihaspataye Namah'.

★ Service:

The greatest remedy for Jupiter is to honour and serve teachers, priests and people of learning. We are forgetting the worth of the guru — the teacher who laid the foundation of our life goes unremembered. Find a teacher from your own life, touch their feet, take their blessing. If a priest or a person of religion is living in want, help them. Hold a small gathering in a teacher's honour — that alone will please Jupiter. To show reverence for knowledge and dharma is Jupiter's greatest remedy.

Charity:

Donate yellow cloth, chana dal, books and scriptures.

⚠ Caution:

Do not turn rigid while performing Jupiter's remedy. Keep reverence for every faith and every kind of knowledge.

◆ Venus (slight weakness)

Reason: Venus is combust, close to the Sun (7.4°); Venus is strong in total Shadbala (ratio 1.52), but being combust it is hindered from giving its own results in full — the remedy is for that hindrance

Lal Kitab remedy:

Wear white on Fridays. Feed green grass to a cow. Use fragrance.

Worship:

Keep the Friday fast. Perform Lakshmi puja. Chant 'Om Shum Shukraya Namah'.

★ Service:

The greatest remedy for Venus is service to women in need, to widows and to the sick. Stand beside a widowed mother — help her keep her household running. Take on the treatment of a woman who is ill. Help with a poor girl's wedding. If you can, go to an old people's home and care for the elderly women there — try to bring a little smile to their faces. If you can bring a smile to one helpless woman's face, Venus himself will be pleased — your married life will grow happy, your relationships sweet, and beauty and ease will return to your life.

Charity:

Donate white cloth, sugar, fragrance and a cow.

⚠ Caution:

Do not grow attached to pleasure and luxury while performing Venus's remedy. Beauty should live within as well as without.

⚠ Note: the remedies must be performed with faith and sincerity. The result may take time — be patient.

Annual Varshaphala — Tajika system

Rudra · 2026 Annual Varshaphala

Overall verdict for the year: favourable Year

Taken as a whole, 2026 will be a favourable year for you. Chief reasons: the year lord is in its own sign (favourable), 3 Ithasala yogas (fulfilment), 3 Ishrafa yogas (obstruction).

Year lord reading

Year lord: Moon — 10th house

This year your year lord occupies the tenth house — the house of work, profession, standing in society, fame and honour. The tenth house is the highest point of the sky, where the sun stands at noon. This year an unprecedented sunrise takes place in your working life.

There is a strong chance of promotion, of a rise in salary, or of an entirely new and honourable position — your professional life will be like a brilliant star that everyone admires. Business people will attain a regal standing; your establishment will become a symbol of your pride. Success will come in government work, and those in authority will be pleased with you.

Your qualities of leadership and your competence will be praised on all sides — like sunlight, your good name will spread to the horizon. But remember — the tall tree takes the strongest wind. Your success may make many envious, and some may wish for your fall. Carry your responsibilities with humility, be kind to those under you, give your colleagues their due credit. The true sun never praises itself; it simply gives light.

Strength of the year lord (own sign): The year lord Moon is in its own sign (Cancer) — the year's results will be steady and favourable.

Munthaadhipati reading

Muntha: Scorpio sign — 2nd house

The Muntha occupies your second house this year — the house of wealth, speech and family. The second house is the language of your mouth, the store of your wealth, and the foundation of your household. When the Muntha comes here, these three fields become the centre of life, as though a page were being turned to a new chapter.

This year stability will come into your finances — but it will come slowly, like the current of a river, not like a flood. Think carefully before any large investment or risky financial decision. The speech of your mouth will be your greatest power — people will be charmed by what you say and compelled to accept your reasoning. But this power has its weakness too: do not let the sharpness of a word spoil a relationship. A word once spoken does not return, just as the water of a river never goes back to its source.

Relations with family members will be sweet, though care is needed with your diet. Trouble with the mouth, teeth or throat may appear — and these small ailments will remind you that the body is a temple and must be kept pure. The Muntha will teach you to save: to understand the worth of money and to learn to respect it.

Punya Saham: Punya Saham falls in Capricorn (the 4th house) — this year good fortune and auspicious results will show themselves particularly in matters of home and comfort.

Mudda Dasha — the year's dasha timeline (Hayanaratna)

The classical timeline of which planet rules which part of the year, counted from the solar-return moment.

Dasha lord	Start	End	Day
Mercury	01/11/2026	22/12/2026	51.7
Mercury occupies the 1st house of the annual chart this year, so during this period events connected with self-expression, health and personality will predominate. Intellect, business, study and communication; be careful with contracts and accounts.
Ketu	22/12/2026	13/01/2027	21.3
Ketu occupies the 11th house of the annual chart this year, so during this period events connected with gain, income, friends and fulfilled wishes will predominate. Spirituality, research and inwardness; detachment and uncertainty are possible.

Kavaca (amulet) advice

A śāstra-based choice of kavaca, judged from the benefic or malefic nature of the planets and from the doṣas

◆ Baglamukhi Kavacha

Presiding deity: The goddess Baglamukhi (eighth of the Dasha Mahavidyas)

Mars is placed in the 7th house — the Mangalik dosha is present. This dosha brings delay in marriage, quarrels between husband and wife, and the breaking of ties. The goddess Baglamukhi quietens the fierceness of Mars and removes the obstacles to marriage.

Metal: Gold

Day: Tuesday or Friday — in yellow cloth, with yellow flowers

Direction of worship: Facing north

Bija mantra: Om Hleem Baglamukhyai Namaḥ

✓ Result: Quietens the Mangalik dosha, removes obstacles to marriage, overcomes enemies, brings victory in litigation, wards off black magic

Special note: Before obtaining the kavaca, have an experienced priest or astrologer perform its prāṇapratīṣṭhā at an auspicious moment. Wear it near the heart or on the left arm. Bathe and be clean when you put the kavaca on.

Consult an experienced astrologer before wearing a gemstone.

◆ A Special Remedy ◆

For progress in your working life → with your own hand, draw a picture of a monkey, in red.

Sign your own name below the picture, write the date, and keep the picture at your workplace, where you sit.

How to do it

Make the picture on a sheet of A4 paper. It should clearly be in that colour — a little of another colour is fine for shading, but not much. Not a printed picture or one from a phone — a picture drawn by your own hand.

Do the remedy with reverence and care. It supports your own effort and whatever advice you need — it does not replace them.
